INTRODUCTION

STATISTICS PRESENTED IN THIS PUBLICATION

This publication presents a range of education and labour force statistics produced from the 2001 Census of Population and Housing for Australia. For comparative purposes, it includes 1996 Census data presented on 2001 Census geography.

The tables in this publication provide selected characteristics of the population for Statistical Divisions (SDs), Statistical Subdivisions (SSDs) and Statistical Local Areas (SLAs). The purpose of these tables is to allow a broad comparison of characteristics between geographic areas.

This publication also contains the Basic Community Profile (BCP) for Australia. This set of tables is provided to illustrate the wide range of data available from the Census. The BCP consists of 33 tables. This publication contains tables 22 to 33 which focus on education and labour force characteristics. The remainder of the BCP, tables 1 to 21, is published in Census of Population and Housing: Selected Social and Housing Characteristics for Statistical Local Areas, Australia (cat. no. 2015.0).

The statistics in this publication are presented on the basis of where people were counted on Census Night ('as enumerated' counts).

One of the important features of the Census is that it describes the characteristics of Australia's population for small geographic areas and small population groups. While not available in this publication, data at the smallest geographic level (Collection District) are available in a range of census products. For more information on these products, please refer to the Appendix—Census Products and Services. Concepts and definitions used in this publication are explained in the Glossary and more detailed information is available in the 2001 Census Dictionary (cat. no. 2901.0). The Explanatory Notes in this publication provide a discussion of the scope and coverage of the Census, the different measures of population, and the limitations of census data.

This publication is one of a series of publications which provide data at SSD level. A similar publication is also available for each state and territory, providing data at the SLA level. See the Appendix—Census Products and Services for more information.

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

LABOUR FORCE

In Australia, the labour force grew from 8,408,289 to 8,959,315 persons aged 15 years and over, an increase of 6.6%.

EMPLOYED

In 2001, there were 8,298,606 employed persons of which 5,360,693 were full-time workers and 2,689,709 were part-time. This represented an increase of 8.7% (662,286 persons) since 1996. The state of Victoria (10.5%) experienced the largest increase while Tasmania (0.2%) recorded the smallest.

Full-time/Part-time

In 2001, there was a fall in the proportion of full-time workers who represented 59.8% of the labour force, down from 61.6% in 1996.

In the period 1996 to 2001, the number of persons employed part-time grew from 2,286,662 in 1996 to 2,689,709 in 2001, an increase of 17.6%. These workers represented 30.0% of the labour force in 2001, compared with 27.2% in 1996.

FULL/PART-TIME EMPLOYED AND UNEMPLOYMENT RATE,
Difference in proportions of the labour force— 1996 to 2001

Source: 1996 and 2001 Censuses, ABS

In 2001 all states and territories, apart from the Australian Capital Territory, had both a lower unemployment rate and lower full-time employment rate than in 1996. The lower unemployment rate is associated with increased part-time employment.

Western Australia experienced the largest decrease in the proportion of persons employed full-time within the labour force (to 58.1% from 61.2%). It also recorded one of the three largest rises in the proportion of persons employed part-time (to 31.8% from 28.7%), along with Queensland (to 30.3% from 27.2%) and Tasmania (to 32.5% from 29.4%).

The smallest decrease in the proportion of persons employed full-time within the labour force was recorded in the Northern Territory (to 63.1% from 63.4%) while the Australian Capital Territory recorded the only increase (to 63.2% from 62.7%). The smallest increase in the proportion of persons employed part-time also was recorded in the Northern Territory (to 28.0% from 26.7%) followed by the Australian Capital Territory (to 29.6% from 27.8%).

Occupation

In 2001, the largest occupation groups were Professionals (1,514,096 persons or 18.2%), Intermediate Clerical, Sales and Service Workers (1,366,701 persons or 16.5%), Tradespersons and Related Workers (1,018,903 persons or 12.3%), Associate Professionals (975,653 persons or 11.8%) and Elementary Clerical, Sales and Service Workers (792,378 persons or 9.5%). These proportions are similar to those in 1996.

High proportions of persons employed as Professionals were recorded in the Australian Capital Territory (26.1%), Victoria (19.2%) and New South Wales (19.1%).

Persons employed as Intermediate Clerical, Sales and Services Workers were dispersed relatively evenly throughout Australia. The Australian Capital Territory (18.1%) recorded the highest percentage while the Northern Territory (15.7%) recorded the lowest.

The highest proportions of persons employed as Tradespersons and Related Workers were recorded in the Northern Territory (13.6%) and Western Australia (13.3%). The Australian Capital Territory recorded the lowest (8.0%).

The proportions of persons working as Associate Professionals ranged from 14.2% for the Australian Capital Territory down to 11.4% for Victoria.

States with the highest proportions of persons employed as Elementary Clerical, Sales and Services Workers were concentrated in the east of Australia. The three highest proportions were recorded in Queensland (10.1%), Tasmania (10.0%) and Victoria (9.6%). The Northern Territory recorded the lowest with 8.1%.

Industry

In 2001, the four largest industries of employment in Australia were Retail Trade (1,211,332 persons or 14.6%), Manufacturing (1,010,179 persons or 12.2%), Property and Business Services (920,331 persons or 11.1%) and Health and Community Services (806,171 persons or 9.7%). These industries were also the top four industries in Australia in 1996.

Since 1996, there has been an increase in the percentage of persons employed in Retail Trade (to 14.6% from 13.6%). The highest proportions were recorded in Queensland (15.3%) and Tasmania (15.0%). The Northern Territory (11.9%) and the Australian Capital Territory (12.2%) recorded the lowest.

At the state/territory level, the highest proportions of persons employed in Manufacturing were Victoria (15.3%) and South Australia (14.7%). Again, the Australian Capital Territory (3.5%) and the Northern Territory (4.5%) recorded the lowest.

Since 1996, the percentage of persons employed in Property and Business Services increased (to 11.1% from 9.8%). The highest proportions were recorded in the Australian Capital Territory (14.7%) and New South Wales (12.2%). The lowest proportion was recorded in Tasmania (7.7%).

High proportions of persons employed in Health and Community Services were dispersed evenly throughout the country. The highest proportion of persons employed in this industry was recorded in Tasmania (11.6%) while the lowest was recorded in the Australian Capital Territory (8.3%).

BASIC COMMUNITY PROFILE

ABOUT THE BASIC COMMUNITY PROFILE

The key characteristics from the Census are summarised in a set of 33 standard tables which make up the Basic Community Profile (BCP).

The first 21 tables (B01–B21) provide a range of social, demographic and housing characteristics from the Census and are published for Australia and each state and territory in Census of Population and Housing: Selected Social and Housing Characteristics for Statistical Local Areas (cat. nos 2015.0–8). Similar BCP tables are available for other geographic areas, including Collection Districts, Local Government Areas, Postal Areas and Suburbs.

The remainder of the BCP series (B22–B33) are included in this publication and provide education and labour force related data.

BCPs for Statistical Local Areas are available from our web site free of charge.

For further information about the Community Profile Series, please refer to the Appendix—Census Products and Services.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SCOPE AND COVERAGE

1 The 2001 Census of Population and Housing was held on 7 August 2001. Australia's first national Census was held in 1911 and since 1961 a census has been taken every five years, a frequency which is specified in the Census and Statistics Act 1905. The objective of the Census is to count the number of people in Australia on Census Night, identifying their key characteristics and those of the dwellings in which they live.

2 The Census aims to count every person who spent Census Night in Australia. This includes Australian residents in Antarctica and people in the territories of Jervis Bay, Cocos (Keeling) Islands and Christmas Island. The other Australian External Territories, Norfolk Island and minor islands such as Heard and McDonald Islands, are outside the scope of the Australian Census. The only people in Australia on Census Night who are excluded from the Census are foreign diplomats and their families.

3 The Census includes people on vessels in or between Australian ports, on board long distance trains, buses or aircraft and on oil or gas rigs off the Australian coast. People entering Australia before midnight on Census Night are counted while people leaving an Australian port for an overseas destination before midnight on Census Night are not. Visitors to Australia are included regardless of how long they have been in the country or how long they plan to stay. However, for people who intend to be in Australia less than one year, only basic demographic data are available. The Census includes homeless people and people camping out.

4 All occupied dwellings are counted in the Census with the exception of diplomatic dwellings. Unoccupied private dwellings are also counted with the exception of unoccupied dwellings in caravan parks, marinas and manufactured home estates, and units in accommodation for the retired or aged (self-care). Unoccupied residences of owners, managers or caretakers of such establishments are counted.

5 Details about the 2001 Census content, collection operations, confidentiality and privacy protection, processing and evaluation activities are contained in 2001 Census of Population and Housing: Nature and Content (cat. no. 2008.0).

STATISTICAL LOCAL AREA BOUNDARIES

6 The boundaries of Statistical Local Areas (SLAs) are revised from time to time to accord with changes to Local Government Area (LGA) boundaries and to meet needs for small area information. The boundaries shown in this publication are those applying at the time of the 2001 Census. Further information on geographic classifications is contained in Statistical Geography: Volume 1—Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC), 2001 (cat. no. 1216.0).

BASIC COMMUNITY PROFILE TABLES B22 TO B33

7 Tables numbered B22 to B33 contained in this publication are from the Census of Population and Housing: Basic Community Profile (cat. no. 2001.0). These tables are available in hardcopy or electronic format for all standard census geographic areas. For more information about the Community Profiles please refer to the Appendix.

ABS POPULATION ESTIMATES

8 This publication contains population counts based on a 'place of enumeration' basis. 'Place of enumeration' means where the person was counted on Census Night. The Census can provide person counts based on 'place of usual residence' for Collection Districts (CDs) and aggregations of CDs.

9 The Estimated Resident Population (ERP) is the official Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) estimate of the Australian population. The ERP is based on results of the Census of Population and Housing. It is compiled as at 30 June of each census year and updated quarterly between censuses. The intercensal estimates of the resident population are revised following the next census.

10 The ERP is derived from census usual residence counts, by making the following three important adjustments:

- An adjustment for census net underenumeration (or undercount). The level of underenumeration is derived from the Post Enumeration Survey which is conducted soon after the Census, and from estimates based on demographic analysis.
- The inclusion of an estimated number of Australian residents who are temporarily overseas on Census Night and are therefore not covered by the Australian Census. The number of such people is estimated from statistics on overseas arrivals and departures.
- The third adjustment occurs because the Census does not fall on 30 June. For example, the 2001 Census was held on 7 August. Back dating of population estimates from 7 August to 30 June is accomplished using data from birth and death registrations, overseas arrivals and departures, and estimates of interstate migration, for the period 1 July to 7 August.

11 ABS population estimates are published in Australian Demographic Statistics (cat. no. 3101.0), produced quarterly, and in Population by Age and Sex, Australian States and Territories (cat. no. 3201.0) produced annually. ERPs for SLAs are published in Regional Population Growth, Australia and New Zealand (cat. no. 3218.0).

12 The ABS also provides projections (based on different assumptions as to future fertility, mortality and migration) of the resident population of Australia, states and territories. These projections are published every two years in Population Projections, Australia (cat. no. 3222.0).

DATA LIMITATIONS

13 Census data are subject to a number of inaccuracies resulting from errors by respondents or mistakes in collection or processing. Whilst many of these are corrected by careful processing procedures, some still remain. The effect of the remaining errors is generally slight, although it may be more important for small groups in the population. The main kinds of error to keep in mind are:

- Partial non-response: In some cases where an answer is not provided to a question an answer is imputed (often from other information on the form). In other cases a 'Not stated' code is allocated.
- Processing error: While such errors can occur in any processing system, quality management is used continuously to improve the quality of processed data, and to identify and correct data of unacceptable quality.
- Random adjustment: Table cells containing small values are randomly adjusted or suppressed to avoid releasing information about particular individuals, families, or households. The effects of these adjustments are statistically insignificant.
- Respondent error: Because processing procedures cannot detect or repair all errors made by people in completing the forms, some remain in final data.
- Undercount: Although the Census aims to count each person, there are some people who are missed and others who are counted more than once. The data in this publication are not adjusted for the net undercount.

14 Further information on data quality is provided progressively in Census Update and in 2001 Census Papers.

OVERSEAS VISITORS

15 Overseas visitors are defined differently for the 2001 Census. For the 1996 Census overseas visitors were defined as any person who stated they would be in Australia for less than 6 months. For the 2001 Census they are defined as any person who stated they would be in Australia for less than 12 months. Data for overseas visitors are restricted to age, sex and marital status.

LABOUR FORCE STATISTICS

16 The labour force statistics collected from the Census are valuable in providing data for small groups of the population. They are not to be confused with the statistics from the monthly Labour Force Survey, which are only available at state, territory and capital city level.

17 Census figures differ from the survey figures because of differences in scope, questionnaire design and collection procedures. For more information refer to Census Working Paper 99/2—1996 Census: Labour Force Status and the 2001 Census Fact Sheet—Labour Force Status.

18 Official monthly labour force statistics are published in Labour Force, Australia (cat. no. 6203.0), produced monthly.

CALCULATIONS OF PROPORTIONS

19 When calculating the proportion of the population with a particular characteristic, 'Not stated' responses are included in the denominator. For example in table 4 the proportion of persons aged 15 years and over with qualification for each geographic area is calculated by dividing the number of persons who stated that they had a non-school qualification by the total population of the geographic area and expressing the result as a percentage. The total population includes the category 'Not stated'.

20 For census variables which include data for overseas visitors i.e. age, sex and marital status, the category 'Overseas visitor' is also included in the denominator.

CALCULATION OF MEDIANS

21 A median is a measure of central tendency. It is a mid value which divides a population distribution into two, with half the observations falling below it and half above it. Unlike averages (means) medians are not usually skewed by extreme observations.

22 There are a number of issues to be aware of:

- The categories 'Not stated' and 'Not applicable' are not included in the calculation of medians.
- The category 'Overseas visitor', is excluded in the calculation of all medians in this publication.
- If a median falls into a category that has a text-only label, then a value of '0' is used for that category. For this publication this is only relevant to the calculation of median income, as the income classification includes categories 'Nil income' and 'Negative income'.
- When calculating a median on a classification containing ranges, the median may fall into a range which is open-ended. In this case, the median would be set to the number in the label. For example, in the calculation of 'Median weekly individual income', if the median was to fall in the last range $1,500 or more, then $1,500 would be allocated as the median.

- 'Median monthly housing loan repayment' and 'Median weekly rent' are based on the ranged variables HLRD01 and RNTD01 respectively. This is due to difficulties associated with the large number of small cells when using individual dollar values to perform these calculations. An adjustment has been made to HLRD01, with the range $1,500 and over changed to $1,500–$1,999 and an additional range $2,000 and over added.

SELECTED AVERAGES

23 'Median monthly housing loan repayments' is applicable to occupied private dwellings being purchased and includes dwellings being purchased under a rent/buy scheme.

24 'Median weekly rent' is applicable to occupied private dwellings being rented. It excludes dwellings being occupied rent free, Visitor only households and Non-classifiable households.

GLOSSARY

General descriptions of terms and concepts used in this publication are provided below. Tables are also footnoted where applicable for additional clarity. Detailed definitions of classifications and concepts are available in the 2001 Census Dictionary (cat. no. 2901.0).

Couple family	This is a family based on two persons who are in a registered or de facto marriage and who are usually resident in the same household. The family may include any number of dependents, non-dependents and/or other related individuals. As it is not necessary for a parent-child relationship to be formed, a couple family can consist of a couple without children.
Family	A family is defined by the ABS as two or more persons, one of whom is at least 15 years of age, who are related by blood, marriage (registered or de facto), adoption, step or fostering, and who are usually resident in the same household. The basis of a family is formed by identifying either a couple, parent-child or other blood relationship. Information on persons temporarily absent on Census Night is considered in family coding.
Full-time/Part-time employment	This variable is based on the number of hours worked in all jobs held by employed people during the week before Census Night. It excludes any time off but includes any overtime or extra time worked: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ Part-time workers: employed people who worked up to 34 hours</li> <li>■ Full-time workers: employed people who worked 35 hours or more.</li> </ul>
Geographic areas	The tables in this publication are at the levels of Statistical Local Area, Statistical Subdivision and Statistical Division, as defined by the 2001 Census edition of the Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC). Statistical Local Area (SLA): These areas consist of one or more Collection Districts and cover, in aggregate, the whole of Australia without gaps or overlaps. Statistical Subdivision (SSD): These areas consist of one or more SLAs and cover, in aggregate, the whole of Australia without gaps or overlaps. Statistical Division (SD): These areas consist of one or more SSDs and cover, in aggregate, the whole of Australia without gaps or overlaps. They do not cross state or territory boundaries. However, the Other Territories, Jervis Bay Territory and the Territories of Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands together form one SD. Capital city SDs are predominantly urban in character and the boundaries are delineated to contain the anticipated urban development of the capital cities (and associated urban centres) for a period of at least 20 years. SDs outside the capital city are designed to be relatively homogeneous regions characterised by identifiable social and economic links between the inhabitants and the economic units in the region, under the unifying influence of one or more major towns or cities. State/territory (STE): States and territories consist of one or more SDs and are the largest type of spatial unit in the ASGC. The six Australian states and five territories which are part of geographic Australia and included in the 2001 ASGC are New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, South Australia, Western Australia, Tasmania, Northern Territory, Australian Capital Territory, Jervis Bay Territory and the external Territories of Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands. In the ASGC, Jervis Bay Territory, the Territory of Christmas Island and the Territory of Cocos (Keeling) Islands are combined to form Other Territories (OT). For this series of publications, data for Other Territories are published down to SSD level in 2017.0 (Australia), and down to SLA in 2017.1 (New South Wales) for Jervis Bay Territory and 2017.5 (Western Australia) for Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands.

GLOSSARY continued

Geographic areas continued	More information about definitions, and lists of codes and names of the geographic areas can be found in Statistical Geography Volume 1—Australian Standard Geographical Classification (ASGC) 2001 (cat. no. 1216.0).
Household	A household is defined as a group of two or more related or unrelated people who usually reside in the same dwelling, who regard themselves as a household, and who make common provision for food or other essentials for living; or a person living in a dwelling who makes provision for his/her own food and other essentials for living, without combining with any other person. Under this definition, in a group house where occupants share the dwelling, each occupant who usually supplies his/her own food should be counted as a separate household and issued with a separate Household Form. In practice, however, most such households usually only complete one form.
Household income	Household income is the sum of the individual incomes of each resident present in the household on Census Night. If any resident aged 15 years or over is temporarily absent, or does not state their income, then household income is not derived for that household. Although visitors' incomes are excluded in the calculation of household income, household income is still calculated for households that comprise only visitors, in order to collect data on household incomes in holiday resorts.
Income	People aged 15 years and over are asked to indicate their usual gross weekly income by selecting an income range on the census form. There are 16 options ranging from 'Negative income', 'Nil income' through to '$1,500 or more per week'. For example, a person with a gross weekly income of $650 per week would tick the range '$600–$699 per week'. Gross weekly income is the income before tax, superannuation, health insurance, or other deductions are made. Gross income includes: family allowance, parenting payment, pensions, unemployment benefits, student allowances, maintenance (child support), superannuation, wages, salary, overtime, dividends, rents received, interest received, business or farm income (less operation expenses) and worker's compensation received.
Industry (of employment)	This variable describes the industries in which employed people (aged 15 years and over) work, and is coded to the Australian and New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC), 1993 (cat. no. 1292.0).
Labour force	The labour force is made up of employed and unemployed people aged 15 years and over.
Labour force status	Labour force status identifies whether a person aged 15 years or over is employed, unemployed or not in the labour force. Employed — includes those people who, during the week prior to Census Night, work for payment or profit; have a job from which they are on leave or otherwise temporarily absent; are on strike or stood down temporarily; or work as unpaid helpers in a family business. Unemployed — includes people who, during the week prior to Census Night, do not have a job but are actively looking for work (either full-time or part-time) and are available to start work. Not in the labour force — includes people aged 15 years and over who are not employed or unemployed as defined above. This includes people who are retired, pensioners and people engaged solely in home duties.
Non-School Qualification: Field of Study	This variable describes the field of study of the highest completed non-school qualification.

Non-School Qualification: Field of Study continued	The full classification for levels of education and fields of education, together with an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, can be found in the publication Australian Standard Classification of Education (ASCED) (cat. no. 1272.0).
Non-School Qualification: Level of Education	This variable describes the level of education of the highest completed non-school qualification (e.g. bachelor degree, diploma). The full classification for levels of education and fields of education, together with an explanation of the conceptual basis of the classification, can be found in the publication Australian Standard Classification of Education (ASCED) (cat. no. 1272.0).
Occupation	This variable describes the main job held by employed people (aged 15 years and over) during the week prior to Census Night, and is coded using the ASCO — Australian Standard Classification of Occupations, Second Edition, 1996 (cat. no. 1220.0).
One parent family	A one parent family consists of a lone parent with at least one child (regardless of age) who is usually resident in the household. The family may also include any number of other related individuals.
Unemployment rate	The unemployment rate is the number of unemployed people expressed as a percentage of the labour force.
